

If you would like to serve your community, why not talk to us about your talents and skills and we can explore what ministry is best suited to you.

***

A key aspect of all current and future ministry is our commitment to the creation of safe and sacred spaces for children, young people and vulnerable adults.

***

Safeguarding is therefore a responsibility shared by all involved in Augustinian ministries.

CALLED TO MINISTRY

Augustinian
Province of Ireland

Our shared vocation as baptised Christians is to bring forth our many gifts in order to build-up the Body of Christ.

***

A common expression of our shared faith is to engage in ministry and serve our community.

***

If you are willing to share your gifts and serve in ministry, please consider the following roles and give some thought to how your talents might shine as part of our faith community.
